Name: Jess Miller Judith Robinson Term: Spring 2017 Class:Year 4 Ash

Acorns PRIMARY SCHOOL

This term we will be covering these areas.

Literacy

Reading stories by Julia Donaldson, and building up independent writing skills with work based around the stories. Matching and reading words from stories.
Sensory stories, sensory diet boxes and sensory drama
Letters & Sounds, Phonics

Science

States of matter – exploring solids, liquids and gasses. Investigating how materials are changed by cooling and heating.

Music

We will be listening to and exploring blues music

Maths

Number: Working with numbers to 20. Counting in 1s, 2sd and 10s. Beginning to understand and learn number bonds to 10. Addition and subtraction.
Measures: weight
Measures: Length, height, & size
Sensory bingo, messy play

This Terms Mini Topics are:

Burns Night, Valentine's Day
Shrove Tuesday / Ash Wednesday
Chinese New year, Holi
Mothering Sunday, St Patrick's day
Spring, Easter

History

The Vikings

The Norman Invasion

Geography

Brazil & Switzerland

Natural geographical features & landscapes

PE

We will be working on ball skills and using these skills to play team games
Massage, vestibular

Computing

Planning and mapping routes on Beebots
Ipads and using touch screens

RE

The Church
Shared experiences/ religious traditions/ beliefs & values
Sacrifice / Easter
Life of Martin Luther King

Art

Exploring textures and using different textures in our art work. Completing work based on the story of The Gruffalo

DT

Mini enterprise – making and selling soup
Designing and making puppets linked to the Gruffalo story