

Name:

Term: Autumn

Class: Pine Class

In our class we will be covering these areas this term:

Literacy

Fiction: Myths and Legends/Stories from Other Cultures

Non-Fiction: Newspapers/Biographies. Diaries and Journals

Poetry: Poems by Long-Established Authors/Creating Images

Handwriting

Reading and phonics

Sensory stories and activities

PSHE and SEAL

New beginnings

Following rules, right and wrong and fairness

Body image

Friendships and relationships

School council

Music

Rock Music

Composition and performance

French, maths and routine songs

School Band

Singing Club and Choir

RE

Where can people find guidance on how to live their lives?

Focus on God

Numeracy

Number: Mental maths, times tables, counting and calculating using different methods.

Measurement and Geometry: Money; 2D and 3D shapes

Data: Collecting data; tallies; reading pictograms and bar charts.

Sensory maths work: Counting, stacking, joining, exploration, one-to-one correspondence and other sensory activities

Pine Class
Autumn Term

PE

Dance unit and daily dance/yoga

Hydro, wheelchair dance, trampolining, vestibular work, bikes, etc. depending on pupils and rotations

French

Greetings

Asking for snacks

Numbers

Birthdays

Places in the town

Science

Materials

Forces

Nature Journal

Computing

Computers, software and the internet

Staying safe online

Switch and robot programming work

Geography

Understanding the globe;

The Amazon and Sweden - study and comparison;

Daily weather observations/records

History

The Middle Ages: timeline; chivalry; the Black Death; the Peasants' Revolt; the printing press and the revival of learning

Art and DT

Line, tone, shade and perspective - rainforest -

Andy Goldsworthy/Henri Rousseau

Sketchbook work

Globes - study, design, construction and evaluation

Making Bread

Construction and craft skills